"Job stress costs the United States over $300 billion yearly in absenteeism, turnover, diminished productivity, and medical, legal, and insurance costs."

"About 75% of Americans reported experiencing a physical or mental symptom of stress in the last month."

Stress is not something to *'just deal with'

"More than three-quarters of adults report symptoms of stress, including headache, tiredness, and depression."

A question...

HR-what?!

39 ms

This graph shows your nightly average HRV in milliseconds (ms) over the past week.

Tracking.

isn't

support. *

\ If anything, these images only makes us more stressed...*

No action-oriented feedback.

A system that actually connects the dots

We don't need more graphs. We need guidance. Support. Something that understands us in real time.

Meet: Struddy.
